On Monday, October 3, the Joseph E. Enright Foundation will hold its annual Golf Invitational at one of the most exclusive golf clubs in the country, the Hamilton Farm Golf Club. Located in the pristine hills of Gladstone, NJ and has seen golfers like Phil Mickelson play its challenging courses.

Dear William,

Far from being a lazy and hazy, but maybe a little crazy, this summer has been filled with activities from sponsoring free skin cancer screenings, sun safety workshops, and promoting sun safety at the Jersey Shore. Go to www.iosephenrightfoundation.org to learn more.

Flying from Seaside Heights to Sandy Hook throughout August, our new banner not only promotes sun safety, but raises the profile of our foundation. It's hard to imagine that most people think they only have to apply sun screen once while at the beach and that today's products are water proof. Neither is true. You need to reapply sun screen every two hours and every time you come out of the water while at the beach.

Free Skin Cancer Screenings

Lucille Talbot, Somerset County Public Health Educator, Enright Executive Director Chip Madsen, and Dr. Elizabeth Quigley of Memorial Sloan Kettering

During Skin Cancer Awareness Month in May, the Joseph E. Enright Foundation sponsored free skin cancer screenings at our Health Trek at Summit Medical Group's campus in Berkeley Heights and at the Somerset County Pool and Golf Club as part of the state-wide "Choose Your Cover" initiative of the Governor's Task Force on Cancer Prevention. Over 100 people received screenings and about a third were referred for more follow up. Dermatologists from Summit Medical Group, Memorial Sloan Kettering and the Somerset Medical Center volunteered their time to help raise awareness and help prevent skin cancer.

SCREEN Sun Safety Workshops

Campers and Counselors at the Presbyterian Camp in Johnsonburg

Over the summer, over 1,200 children were taught about sun safety at the Presbyterian Camp in Johnsonburg, NJ. The counselors and campers were given pre- and post-tests to determine the effectiveness of the program.

The scores improved from 45% to 85% after a week of reminders from the great counselors at Johnsonburg. Every morning the campers saw a sign as they entered the dining hall posting the UV index for the day as well as a slogan and sun safety fact.

WIN $1,000!!! If you're a teen or know a teen who loves to make YouTube Videos, enter the Enright Foundation's YouTube Contest. Three prizes will be awarded to the most creative video about your own experience with skin cancer or someone you know who had skin cancer. The deadline has been extended to the early fall so get started now and win the $1,000 first Prize or the 2nd or 3rd prize of $500 or $250.

Sincerely,

William "Chip" Madsen, Executive Director
Joseph E. Enright Foundation
